St. James's, April 22.

AN humble Addreſs of the United Miniſters of the Goſpel in New-England, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Jeremiah Dummer, Eſq; Agent for New-England, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Geneva, April 19, N. S. By Letters dated Yeſterday from Lauſanne we have an Account, that the Regents of the Canton of Berne had referred to the Inhabitants of a Street of Lauſanne called du Bourg, the Examinations of Major Davel, it being an ancient Privilege of the ſaid Inhabitants of that Street to take Cognizance of and paſs Sentence upon Criminals within the Town of Lauſanne. Accordingly they gave Judgement the 17th Inſtant, that Major Davel ſhould have his Hand and his Head cut off. An Expreſs was ſent to Berne, to acquaint the Regents with the Sentence paſſed, and their final Determination concerning him is daily expected.

Copenhagen, April 24, N. S. On the 20th Inſtant, the Secretary of the Council was with M. Goes the Dutch Envoy, and told him, that the King, to ſhew how much he eſteemed the Friendſhip of the States, and to remove all Occaſions of any Miſunderſtanding between them, had ſent Order to his Reſident at the Hague to declare to their High Mightineſſes that the Merchant Ships of their Subjects might freely traffick in the Baltick; his Majeſty leaving the Demands of Arrears due to his Troops which ſerved the States in the late War, to be adjuſted in an amicable Manner.

Hague, April 27, N. S. The Merchant Ships bound from Amſterdam and other Ports for the Baltick, having for ſome time ſuſpended their Voyage, Notice has been given by Order of the States that they may now ſail without any further Delay. The ſending of a Squadron to the Streights is put off to another Year; only a fourth Ship is to be added to the three of the ordinary Convoy of Amſterdam.

Hague, April 30, N. S. According to the Advices from Amſterdam about 50 Ships have already ſailed for the North. The Marqueſs de Monteleone has delivered to the States General his Maſter the King of Spain's Letter of Notification of the Prince Don Carlos's Marriage; he has alſo given like Letters of Notification to ſeveral Miniſters here, for the reſpective Princes their Maſters. We have Letters from Conſtantinople of the 23d of March, N. S. which
